

NEXT COMMERCE ACCELERATOR WANTS YOU

About us

Next Commerce Accelerator (NCA) is a Hamburg-based, early-stage startup acceleration and venture capital firm investing in outstanding teams across Europe. We manage a portfolio of 50+ startups from several industries, including Trade & Commerce, HR-Tech, FinTech, and ConTech. Together with our 25+ corporate partners, we empower founders to succeed.

To further strengthen our team, we are looking for the next possible date for a startup enthusiastic working student in Hamburg.

In this working student role, you get a unique glimpse into the early-stage venture capital scene. At NCA, you will find yourself part of an experienced, dynamic, and hands-on team that will involve you in the scaling of young startups into VC-ready firms.

WORKING STUDENT Accelerator / Startup Enthusiast (M/F/D) Hamburg, part-time

Your Job:

- Directly support the program management in organizing events and individual interactions between startups and corporates, mentors and nca team members
- Proactive enhancement of the mentors database
- Refine mentor benefits
- Creating new formats and events for (remote) networking
- Conduct market research and competitive analysis
- Conduct new possibilities for partnerships in the startup ecosystem

What you'll get:

- Steep learning curve and significant exposure to the entrepreneurial ecosystem
- Insights into the field of startup development and corporate innovation
- Introduction to a strong network of experienced founders, corporate partners , and startup experts
- Flexible working hours and a great Team

Here's what we'd like you to bring to the table:

- Solid interests and passion for the startup ecosystem
- Be able to work independently
- Fluent in German and English
- Proactive work ethics and creative approach

To apply, please send your VC and a short motivation email to join@nca.vc.